

JULY 9, 2021 FEATURED ART ON DISPLAY

DOUBTING THOMAS – 856 Jefferson

Shawn Mishak and Tessa LeBaron—W.E.T. - A Water-Themed Art Exhibition

In the title of the show: 'W,' Water, represents the water element, 'E,' Element represents the basic representation of classical ideals of the most fundamental driving forces/substance on our planet and 'T,' Treatment to represent not only how we are 'treating' this invaluable resource and our water systems on Earth, but also how we can 'treat' this subject matter as artists to help us as inhabitants of this planet to consider how we do and can act as more responsible and ethical stewards of this precious element. The two featured artists are Shawn Mishak and Tessa LeBaron. There is also a small group exhibition featuring numerous artists.

KAISER GALLERY – 2418 Professor Ave.

Derick Decario Ladale Whitson—SUGAR (Chapter II) Whitson (b. 1991 Mansfield, Ohio) is an artist currently living and working in NYC. Working primarily in photography and video, Whitson explores the history and relationships of clowning, drag queens and black/white face to explore the social constructs of race, gender, and sexuality.

818 STUDIO – 818 Jefferson Ave.

Barbara Merritt and Anthony Van Rooy
New work by Barbara Merritt and 818's favorite "house" artist Anthony Van Rooy. Van Rooy's influences are the human figure, fashion, design, magic, religion and things that don't make sense to humans.

PAUL DUDA GALLERY – 2342 Professor Ave.

Paul Duda
Introducing a new collection of flower paintings and a gallery full of iconic Cleveland photography.
