Cut From The Same Cloth

In partnership with The Cleveland Institute of Art's Creativity Works program, Kaiser Gallery presents 'Cut From The Same Cloth' on view through November 28. This exhibit features the mixed media works of Cleveland Institute of Art students Ewuresi Archer and Crystal Miller. The vibrant artworks in this series draw directly from the artists' African American (Miller) and African cultures (Archer, who's from Ghana), offering a dialect and a conversation between the two experiences.
