

WALKABOUT

TREMONT™

FEATURED ART ON DISPLAY

Kaiser Gallery – 2418 Professor Ave.

The Animal Kind

An exhibition that explores humans' fascination with animals that features work by 10 contemporary artists. Visit with Gretchen of Virgo Vibes Tarot for a reading. Curated cocktails that pair with the artwork are also available. Happy hour until 7 p.m. with $2 off cocktails and wine and $1 off craft beer.

Doubting Thomas Gallery – 856 Jefferson Ave.

EARTH: Our One and Only

This group exhibition features new works from more than 30 artists examining the topic of Earth as one of the five classical elements and its significance from an environmental perspective.

RestorARTive Outdoor Gallery Displays

Featuring five new artists at five outdoor locations around Tremont:

Sarah Hines - Polaris - @ Kaiser Gallery
Amirah Cunningham - Day and Night - @ The Treehouse
Janoi Daley - Mongrel Dog (Foaming) - @ Hi & Dry
Dan Segal - The Big City - @ Climb Cleveland
Joey Leppo - Generations - @ Fat Cats

Megan Dardis Art Studio – 2535 Scranton Rd.

Dardis has new works that are still very much about bright and explosive color, but with a new exploration in depth and texture. Focusing on building up the surface with overlapping layers of color and pops of texture, these new pieces draw the viewer in to her expressive work. Open 5-8 p.m.

Paul Duda Gallery – 2342 Professor Ave.

A gallery full of iconic Cleveland photography.

Edison's Pub – 2373 Professor Ave.

Pop-culture art from local favorite Sean McCoy

Treehouse – 820 College Ave.

Artist Matt Renkas
